DETAILED ACTION

1. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-7 and 22 are rejected under 2164.08 (a) Single Means Claim. A single means claim, i.e., where a means recitation does not appear in combination with another recited element of means, is subject to an undue breadth rejection under U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. In re Hyatt, 708 F.2d 712,714-715,218 USPQ 195,197 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (A single means claim which covered every conceivable means for achieving the stated purpose was held nonenabling for the scope of the claim because the specification disclosed at most only those means known to the inventor.). When claims depend on a recited property, a fact situation comparable to Hyatt is possible, where the claim covers every conceivable structure (means) for achieving the stated property (result) while the specification discloses at most only those known to the inventor. In claim 1, it is only a processor which is performing all the functions, hence giving rise to a single means claim.

2. Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-21 are allowable.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 05/27/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

A) At page 8 of 10, in claims 1-7, Applicant argued that none of the claims 1-7 are written in so as to invoke & 112, sixth paragraph; and therefore, none of the claims 1-7 are subject to the enablement requirement of reciting a combination of means elements.

B) In response, the examiner maintains that in claim 1, it is only a processor which is performing all the functions, hence giving rise to a single means claim.

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
